

The diagram is structured like a classical building. At the top is a triangular pediment containing the title. Below it are four vertical columns representing key architectural principles. At the base are three horizontal rectangular blocks representing foundational elements. The entire diagram is rendered in shades of gray with black text.

Service-oriented Architecture

Distribution

Loose Coupling

Directory Service

Process-oriented

Simplicity

Security

Standards